REASONS FOR INSURANCE

Very few, even by hard work, die rich. Every man can have something, if he insures his life. There is no sense in stating the family all year, life, to die partly rich. Live well, insure, and build up an estate by easy payments. That is philosophy. (Correspondence solicited.)

G. H. Terrell will be at the Town Clerk's office Saturday to pay the teachers of Morristown their salaries.

Turkey and hen shoots are a part of sporting events in rural districts, in order to get ready for Thanksgiving.

Regular meeting of the W. R. C. Saturday afternoon, Nov. 10, at 2 o'clock. Special work. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Frances G. Brigham is at present in St. Albans, having been the guest of relatives in that county for the past month.

The election yesterday was a very quiet affair, the weather conditions fairly good, and the vote pulled about that of former years.

J. H. Atchinson has been busy for some time repairing his Maple street home, and will soon be in fine shape to ward off winter's icy sting.

The annual inspection of the S. of V. will be held Friday evening at Hall & Cheney's new store. Free refreshments is part of the program.

The target, and pit for the attendance of the Morrisville Rifle Club were completed Monday, and work on the club building commenced yesterday.

"Ned" Bailey, who has been connected with Warren's meat market for some time as butcher, has resigned and expects to become a Granger.

Arthur Waite has just returned from Franklin county where he has been hauling. He reports that he bought 100 tons. See business notice.

The big furnaces at Billings' mill are being overhauled this week, 3000 bricks having been already drawn for the purpose. Bert Shaw is the master workman.

A. R. Campbell's window decoration this week is in the shape of a Belgian hare, an animal that is becoming quite popular for table use among upstartdom.

A special communication of Mount Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M., Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, for work on M. M. degree. All Master Masons invited and requested to be present.

Miss Florence M. Bryant and Miss Jessie Tanner went to Chicago last week and go forward to Redland, Cal., this week, where they expect to spend the winter on account of Miss Bryant's health.

The ladies of the Universalist society will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. A. D. Thomas on Thursday evening, at seven o'clock. Every one is urged to be present as matters of importance are to be considered.

The Woman's Missionary meeting will be held in Congregational church parlors Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A fine supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:00 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited. There will be a cake sale after supper.

For a long time there has been complaint that the entrance to the post-office was not equal to the crowd. A larger entrance has been provided, and seems to give considerable relief, yet there are many who seem to think that it is not quite up-to-date enough for Morrisville.

Mrs. Carola and Miss Ellen C. Eaton of Chicago, former residents of Vermont, were recent guests of Judge and Mrs. Talcott and Lorenzo Gates at Valparaiso, Indiana. Mrs. and Miss Eaton are cousins of Mrs. Talcott, who has been in former years connected with People's Academy.

The ladies having charge of the rummage sale wish to thank all who helped make it a success either by work, contributions or patronage. The exchange of commodities seemed so fair, and the enterprise so successful that the ladies think they shall have another similar sale next year, but with some new and desirable features added.

Two referee cases were in progress Monday—Utton v. Wilkins, ex-Governor H. C. Bates Referee, held in Hendee and Fisk's office, and Newcomb v. Tucker, L. C. Moody, Referee, held in Powers & Cheney's office. The latter case was settled, while the hearing in the former one was adjourned until Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith leave Saturday for quite an extended trip, visiting their former home in New Hampshire over Sunday. Boston will be the next stopping place. From there they go to Washington to attend the National Grange meeting, and will stop a day or so upon the return trip in New York.

To aid the Woman's Club in preparing for their fair, a ten-cent social will be given by Mrs. J. A. Robinson at her home Friday evening from 8 o'clock to as late as you please. This is not confined to the club, but everyone is cordially invited. Come prepared to help entertain. Light refreshments will be served.

The catamount that has been terrorizing several neighborhoods, or some relative of the "varmint," was heard near H. C. Sherwin's barn last Sunday morning, about 4 o'clock, as Mr. Sherwin was going to do his milking. While this may not be a warning against early rising, those who persist in doing it should take a galling gun along for protection.

E. S. Robinson has greatly improved the appearance of his property near the river, by clearing off the ledge, making walks, and setting out small trees. He intends placing benches there in the spring. This is a move in the right direction, and one that should be followed by others, as we doubt not there are many places around town, in gardens or on lawns that might be made pretty and attractive nooks, by a small amount of labor.

A procession, that "takes the cake," wended its way down Main and Portland streets last Saturday, being an aggregation of vehicles dating way back in the way of usefulness.

Darius Bodel acted as engineer, and Deputy Sheriff Town as conductor. Town being seated under an umbrella, fanning himself, preparing for the ordeal ahead of him in the auctioneering line. The outfit brought the chattel mortgage holder about $60, less expenses.

The reading of the thermometer for the past eight years, beginning with the year 1893, is 58°, 55°, 50°, 50°, 56°, 54°, 53°, 61°, for the noon hour during the month of October. October 15, '94 two inches of snow fell. This plainly shows that all remarks made of the mildness of 1900 October weather are well founded, and November thus far is as promising as the beautiful rainbow of Monday evening, though the higher hills were whitened Monday night.

A fair under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Morrisville will be held in the Town Hall about the middle of December, consisting of booths representing the four seasons in which articles corresponding to them will be sold. There will also be attractive entertainments provided for two evenings. This fair will be given for the benefit of the town, the club having in view the placing of a drinking fountain at the lower end of Academy Park. It is expected that everybody will respond to the call of the committee who will solicit articles to sell or contribute in money to help along this worthy enterprise.

The officers of Coral Chapter, No. 16, O. E. S., went to Enosburg Friday and organized a chapter with 38 charter members, being met at Shelburn Junction by teams to make the trip of nine miles to the Falls Village, and entertained in the homes of the O. E. S. ladies. Refreshments and a social time followed the Chapter organization work. On the return trip a Chapter was organized at Jeffersonville Saturday afternoon with 19 charter members, the entertainment being by the Stars and Brother Masons, at the Melendy House. Those taking part at both places from here were Mrs. W. W. Peck, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. I. P. Booth, Mrs. C. A. Spiller, Mrs. V. C. Heath, Mrs. D. N. Hutchins, Mrs. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. H. L. Spear, Mrs. W. L. Tiltonson, Mrs. C. A. Gile, Mrs. W. L. Wakefield, Miss Ednah Rublee and Mrs. J. F. Thomas.

One thing will be apparent since last night, at least, that the New England Telephone & Telephone Co. is not a "monopoly" all the time, and that in the giving out of election returns, not only for this but in former years, it has been very liberal, making no charge. The Presidential year has added zest to the getting of election news, so Manager Henley connected Town Hall with the main line, appointing D. A. Sanders as "phone operator. An orchestra composed of P. E. Stone, violin; Lin Paul, cello; with Mrs. E. H. Stone at the piano, gave excellent music during the evening. This was all free, but the "man with the hat" at the door must have received quite a sum from those passing out, as a complimentary testimonial to those who had labored to make the occasion an enjoyable one. It was an enthusiastic crowd. Returns were also received at the depot by telegraph.

The Halloween party of last week netted the Senior Academy class $20. There will be an inspection of J. M. Warner Post, Saturday, Nov. 17, at 7:30, p. m., sharp. A comrades are requested to be present.

J. H. Warren is moving to-day, from the house he has occupied on Main street for so many years, to his house over in Brooklyn.

S. N. Palmer, one of our good farmers, stated yesterday that he had voted for 12 Presidents, and with four exceptions had been on the winning side. There are probably many others in Morristown that have voted for that many Presidents, and a few who have voted for a larger number.

HYDE PARK.

Election is over.
Now get ready for Thanksgiving.

Thos. Aben and bride of Burlington are at John Finnegans.

Misses Adine and Lina Minor are visiting relatives in Fletcher.

Miss Margaret McElroy is spending a few days at Geo. Eastman's.

R. L. Fairbanks shipped a car load of stock to Boston markets Monday.

N. G. Wood was in Burlington Thursday looking after his coal interests.

Miss Hallie Kelton of St. Albans has been visiting her friend, Mrs. Lee Andrews.

Mrs. P. T. Denio is in attendance upon a district meeting of Rebekahs at Portland.

Dewey Hanley returned Monday from a visit of several days in Chittenden county.

Bert Wells and wife of Plainfield, Vt., were visitors at H. J. Lilley's a part of last week.

Miss Helen Smalley of Waterbury is here to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. W. N. Putnam.

The Odd Fellows worked the third degree upon Melvin G. Morse of Hardwick last Friday night.

H. M. Noyes went to Montpelier and F. N. Keeler to Burlington for comfort from election returns.

The papers have been signed and the Odd Fellows have a perpetual lease of the upper floor of the town hall.

Mrs. Alice Rogers and Mrs. Lizzie Brown of North Troy were guests at "The Elms" several days the past week.

The youngest child of Rev. and Mrs. Taylor had a severe attack of erysipelas last week, but is much better now.

Harry Foss was thrown from his bicycle one day last week, receiving injuries that laid him up for a few days.

Myron Flanders and wife of Tunbridge spent several days here the past week with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lilley.

Prof. Ingalls visited several towns in the county last Saturday on business pertaining to the County Superintendency.

Bert Noyes now acts as agent for the Morrisville laundry. All work entrusted to him will be given prompt attention.

The young people held a "prom" at the town hall Friday evening. There was a good attendance and a good time.

Samuel Cinnamon, who represented this town in the legislature of 1878, died Saturday at Johnson, where he had been living for some time.

The remains of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gauthier were removed Tuesday from the old Catholic cemetery in Johnson to the new one in this village.

Let's see. Nothing been heard of or said about that panther for a couple of weeks. Guess he got wind of Beard's being on his trail and so skipped out.

C. A. Knight's greenhouse is up and enclosed and the steam fittings are about completed. In connection with the greenhouse, he is to have an up-to-date hennery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dower of Hinesburg, Vt., made a short visit here last week with their daughters, Mrs. John Finnegans and Miss Agnes Dower, returning home Monday.

R. C. Whitehill and wife of Waterbury visited in the place last Friday. Mr. Whitehill is the hustling editor of the Waterbury Record, one of Vermont's progressive papers.

Geo. Brill has just added to his armory outfit a Colt's army revolver. This gives him a complete assortment of "weapons of defence" and he is now ready for any sort of burglar.

E. L. Noyes, wife and son, and F. N. Keeler and wife visited Mt. Mansfield fish pond the first of the week. When full, the pond will cover 125 acres, making one of the largest and best trout ponds in the state.

Election returns were received at the depot, at which place a large crowd assembled. Returns were a long time coming in and not until after midnight was anything of importance heard. The news by telephone from Morrisville was the best by far.

Those "Rough Rider" hats are still in style.

The boys "didn't do a thing" Halloween night—that is they didn't do anywhere near as much cutting up as a year ago. Some old culeh was moved around, a sign or two taken down and a few unique ones put up in various places, throughout the village.

Alcohol seemed to be very free about the village Tuesday and at the depot in the evening the drunks were numerous. While it may not be generally known where the liquor came from it is very evident that too much is dispensed somewhere for the morals and good of the community.

The work of re-shingling the hotel barn goes merrily on. It is estimated that it will take about 50,000 shingles to do the job. It may not be known to many that the barn formerly stood where the bank now stands. It was moved to its present location by L. H. Noyes some thirty-five years ago, at which time it was enlarged to its present proportions. We do not know when the original barn was built, but probably 50 or 60 years ago.

Josiah Perry has concluded to give up farming, for a year at least. He goes down to Cambridge Nov. 20 to run a boarding house for Morse & Child at the "Notch." His wife and two youngest children go with him, the other two remaining in school here. Mr. Perry has lived on the same farm for twenty years, and is a good townsman whom many will regret to have go away. His brother Norman will carry on the farm in connection with the one he owns.

R. W. Hulburd and F. H. McFarland attended a law suit at Lowell last Friday. It was between Mrs. Thos. Long and L. L. Cross. Mrs. Long sued Cross for assault and battery, claiming that last summer Long forcibly ejected her from his berry field. Cross denied this, stating that he simply ordered her out. The plaintiff's sisters corroborated this statement and the jury returned a verdict of "no cause for action."

Hufus Kinsley, Esq., was the Justice. Hulburd for the plaintiff, McFarland for the defendant.

The election was a very quiet affair in this town—no very large attendance at any one time. At ten o'clock the polls were opened with J. T. Stevens in charge of the ballot box, N. G. Wood in his usual place as clerk, with Amos Davis and Peter Parris as ballot clerks. The first vote was cast by R. W. Hulburd and the last by Dewey Hanley. There were 291 ballots taken from the tablets, one of these was torn and in counting two were found marked defective. This left a total vote of 288, of which the Republicans cast 191, Democrats 92, Prohibitionists 4, People's party 1, giving a Republican majority of 94. This is a falling off of 30 as compared with the majority of 1896. The Democrats cast one more vote than in 1896, the Prohibitionists 2, People's party the same. In 1896 there was one National Democratic vote cast. Add this to the Regular Democratic vote and that of 1896 and 1900 is the same. The loss is entirely on the Republican side, caused by the indifference of about 30 Republicans.

Riverside.

Mrs. Eliza Lilley is visiting in Cambridge.

Mrs. Lemira Osley of Cambridge visited Mrs. Helen Styles recently.

Thomas Richardson of Garfield has rented and moved on to the Waters place.

Mrs. Henry Thomas from Waterville spent last Saturday with Mrs. Helen Styles.

Clayton Styles has hired out to Mr. Prindle on the river, commencing work last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alpha Crawford died at West Haven, Conn., not West Enosburg as printed last week.

Mrs. C. N. Styles and children of Pleasant Valley visited at Ed Lilley's and other relatives in this place last Friday.
